

Obstacles Towards Honoring our

Interconnectedness:

Prejudice and Individualism

Is there something you enjoy doing that is also helpful to others?

How do you help your family at home or your friends?

What do you want to do as an adult that will help people in your community?

The background of the slide is a reproduction of the painting 'The Starry Night' by the Dutch Impressionist painter J.M.W. Turner. The painting depicts a coastal town at night, with a prominent church spire in the center. The sky is filled with vibrant, swirling patterns of blue and white, representing a turbulent, starry night. The foreground shows dark, silhouetted buildings and trees, with a few windows glowing with light. The overall mood is one of awe and wonder, capturing the beauty and mystery of the night sky.

What types of prejudice do you notice around you that make it difficult to build caring connections with others?

Where do these stereotypes come from and who spreads them?

How can we resist stereotyping others?

*When you seek to connect with others in a caring way,
what do you give up?*

What did the boys give up?

What did they gain?
